WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section partly cloudy tonight, probably local thunder-storms. Saturday fair, warmer; variable winds.

DOUBLE MURDER BY AN ALEXANDRIA NEGRO.—Harry Alexander, a negro, who recently lived in this city, yesterday shot and killed Benjamin Carter and Philip Bennett, the former being a cross-tie inspector and the latter a prosperous farmer living in Digges, W. Va. Carter and Bennett were standing near the postoffice engaged in conversation, when the negro, half drunk, walked up and demanded change for a quarter. Bennett took the negro's money, and, taking it into the street, remarked that he was not making change for the colored race. The negro walked a few feet away, when he drew from his pocket a revolver and opened fire on Bennett. Carter ran into a store near by, secured a gun, and came out firing at the negro. The negro returned Carter's fire, and at the third shot Carter, too, fell dead. The negro hurriedly reloaded his revolver and made haste toward the hills southeast of town. Alexander was captured but did not surrender until after he had exhausted all his ammunition, but no one was injured. He was taken through the mountains to Williamston and a lynching will be averted.

THOUGHT HE WAS AT RIVER VIEW.—Taylor Petney, a native of Alexandria and up to about a year ago a resident of this city, was one of the excursionists on the steamer Samuel J. Penz late yesterday evening. The boat stopped here on her way from Washington down the river and Petney, supposing he was at River View, ranterously leaped ashore anticipating flying horses, roller-coasters, chutes, etc. He strolled around the wharf until finally he fixed his optics upon a sign which bore the name of a street and which he thought was near by at the time and Petney made some inquiries concerning his position and bearings. He was told he was in Alexandria—not River View—and Petney started toward the steamer which in the meantime had taken on her passengers and moved away from the dock. He was compelled to remain here until her return at 11 o'clock. It may seem remarkable that a man born within half a square of the wharf on which he landed and who had moved around the docks nearly all his life should have become so bewildered. But the above was an actual occurrence.

MURDER IN WASHINGTON.—The police of this city have been requested to keep a lookout for a negro named Chas. Doyle, who killed Holland Dent last night by cutting his throat. The trouble occurred at the stables of the United States Express Co., in Washington. Both men were negroes about 35 years old, and were employed by the express company. The quarrel which preceded the killing was over a trivial affair. Thomas Greyson, colored, employed at the stables, had asked Doyle to get him something to eat from a nearby lunch room. They bantered each other for a few minutes, when Dent joined in. Doyle took offense, but Dent, it is said, kept his temper. After a few words Doyle went into the harness room, brought out a razor, and brandished the blade in Dent's face. Dent tried to quiet his assailant, it is alleged, but before anything could be done the razor had been drawn several times across Dent's throat. Dent died within three minutes. Doyle fled and is still at large. A reward of fifty dollars has been offered for his arrest.

WANT CHANGE OF GUARDIANSHIP.—The elopement of Mrs. Clara Riedell and William Morey, both clerks in the War department, in Washington, was recalled yesterday by the filing of a petition in the Probate Court in that city asking for a change in the guardianship of Mrs. Riedell's two children by the removal of Mrs. Atherton, grandmother of the children. The petitioner declares that their mother and not their grandmother is their nearest relative. Mr. Carleton B. Hazard, the petitioner, asserts that he has no money belonging to them, and that they are not residents of the District of Columbia but of Fairfax county. He says that on May 28 Mrs. Riedell came to him and told him that she was going away, and asked him to look out for the children, to receive remittances from her, and see that the money was properly expended for their benefit. He says she did leave on June 1, and that since that time he has received remittances from her for the benefit of her children.

TO BE THE MODERN TIBER.—D. H. Burnham, Charles McMin and Chas. Moore, members of the committee for the improvement of the Washington park system, arrived in London yesterday after visits to Paris, Rome, Venice, Berlin and other continental cities. The members of the committee say the nearest example for Washington is Rome, where the Tiber corresponds with the Potomac. They have been on a tour of observation in order to solve the problem of the beautification of Washington and its approaches by water. Of course all improvements in this line will necessarily benefit Alexandria, which city, sooner or later, will naturally be the port of the capital of the country.

DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN.—Mr. John H. Simpson, a well-known young man of this city, died yesterday afternoon at the residence of his mother, 521 south Henry street. The deceased was about 21 years of age. He was a son of the late William G. Simpson, and was at one time employed at the Geo. R. Hill bakery. Mr. Simpson had been a sufferer from consumption for some time.

John Beem, West Middleburg, Pa. No preparation equals Kodol Dyspepsia Cure as it contains all the natural ingredients. It digests all kinds of food and can't help but do you good. Sold by E. B. Leachester & Sons.

PERSONAL.—One of the most brilliant and charming social functions ever given in Stafford was the club dance on Tuesday the 16th, at the home of Mr. Thos. Waller, near Garrisonville. Among those present was Miss Slaymaker, of this city.

Mr. Matthew Trimble and Judge S. T. Morell, the latter who married an Alexandria lady, the daughter of the late Harrison Bradley, were in the city today.

Miss Mary H. Taylor has gone to McShayeville, Rockingham county, to spend the summer.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.—The following officers of Kenetic Council, Catholic Woman's Benevolent Legion, were installed last night at St. Mary's Hall by Miss Annie O'Connor, of New York, supreme president: Chaplain, Rev. H. J. Cutler, chancellor, Mrs. Mary Lotta Roche; president, Mrs. Mary Esther Stoughton; vice president, Mrs. Martha Elizabeth Lucas; secretary, Mrs. Mary A. Jones; collector, Miss Annie A. Stoughton; treasurer, Mrs. Mary A. Kimball; trustees, Mrs. Boies V. Fannon, Mrs. Agnes Nugent and Mrs. Madeline Skrobacek; marshal, Mrs. Mary Adams; guard, Mrs. Mary A. Green; orator, Mrs. Annie K. Stoughton. Among those present were Rev. Father Cutler, Mrs. Burke, president of St. Mary's Council, of Washington, and Mrs. Smith, chancellor of the same. The new council has been organized under very favorable circumstances. The council is an insurance organization.

A. L. I.—The members of the Alexandria Light Infantry last night, in their army, presented Lieut. Julius Y. Williams with a handsome sword as a token of their esteem. The presentation was made by Maj. W. M. Smith, who delivered a brief speech. Lieutenant Williams responded in a short and appropriate speech. The Light Infantry will go into encampment at Ocean View with the other companies of the Seventeenth regiment on Sunday next, and will leave here tomorrow night under command of Capt. J. E. King. The command will number thirty-three strong. Officers of the company went down last night to make all things ready for their reception.

REMOVING THE GRASS.—Many people are now engaged in removing grass and other unsightly growths from the fronts of their premises. These products of many months of neglect are being thrown into the streets, and unless soon removed will render the thoroughfares a bad condition. Bank weeds which have been dug or pulled up are allowed to die and wither under the prevailing tropical sun, and disease is liable to follow. Probably the limited force at work for the city is progressing as rapidly as possible in the work of removing these menaces to health, but it would be advisable to procure more carts and facilitate the work as much as possible.

CIGARS.

There is but one brand of "Captain Billy" Cigars on the market

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge J. K. M. Norton presiding.—A. B. Carney, of the Norfolk bar, was admitted to practice in this court.

Roxie G. Chatman was appointed administratrix of the estate of George Chatman.

The will of Mrs. Mary V. Clarke was admitted to probate. She left her estate to her husband, J. P. Clarke.

POCKETBOOK SNATCHED.—Mrs. C. J. Corbett while walking on King street, between Royal and Pitt, at half-past one o'clock this afternoon had her pocketbook snatched from her hand by a white boy who ran off with it. She at once notified the police and gave the best description she could of the thief. The officers are endeavoring to find him. The pocketbook contained a small sum of money.

WORK PROGRESSING.—The work of repairing the cradle of the ways at Agnew's shipyard is in progress. The damage is of a serious nature, and the repairs may consume more time than was at first supposed. It is said that eighteen or twenty boats, including several tugs, are awaiting an opportunity to be hauled out.

NINETY DEGREES appears to be the regulation temperature now, the mercury having reached that mark again today.
